

I encourage you to think about the counsel offered in the following words copied from another bulletin. At one time, this was pretty much how all members of the church felt.

It is much less so these days. The question is, as a church, are we stronger or weaker for it? - MEM

Your whole family needs to be in Bible study and both worship periods every Sunday and mid-week services each Wednesday evening. Have you said, "They won't miss me?"

ONE hole in a boat will sink it.

ONE false alarm can cause panic.

ONE wayward child can break a mother's heart.

ONE visitor brought by every member would double our attendance.

ONE dollar would increase immeasurably our mission and benevolent programs.

ONE convert per Christian would mean the whole world converted in one generation.

Minute of Meditation (Heard on 910 AM WLTP)

Do you still get embarrassed? My daughter-in-law certainly did! It happened when my then five-year-old grandson and his older brother and sister were taken to the doctor's office for a check-up. After the older grandchildren check-up. After the older grandchildren were given a thorough review, the five year old told the doctor that he wanted a check-up also. After looking him over and finding no problem, the doctor gave him a light pat on the behind and said everything was fine. My grandson looked at the doctor and said "Hey" and then proceeded to slap the doctor's posterior!!! Needless to say, my daughter-in-law was so mortified and embarrassed that she didn't know what to card units my grandson hadn't done this but Lam say! I wish my grandson hadn't done this, but I am thankful that his actions did cause embarrassment. In our world today it seems as if most people do not even know what it is to be embarrassed. Every type of filth, foul language, states of undress, manners, that we see are generally greeted with a "Ho-Hum" attitude. To many, nothing seems to shock! Certainly very few feel embarrassed. As God watches what happens in this country, I wonder if He is embarrassed with our actions? (This is Gary Herridge with a minute of meditation from the Camden Avenue church of Christ where you are always welcome).

Psalm 107:1-3; 43

"Let the Redeemed of the LORD Say So"

<sup>1</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever! <sup>2</sup>Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

<sup>43</sup> Whoever is wise, let him attend to these things; let them consider the steadfast love of the LORD

FAMILY TIME MEMORY VERSE

As we focus our minds this week on the idea of Thanksgiving, I would like to share a longer passage to commit to memory. This has always been one of my favorite passages; and I believe it is appropriate for us to focus on over the next couple of weeks. So, we will keep it as our memory verse for 2 weeks, especially since it is a lengthier passage.

REMEMBER!!! This is our "Family Time Memory Verse"! Take some time to memorize and meditate on these passages together in your families.

Love you all!

Stephen

LAST WEEK'S VERSE

"Hear, O Israel: "The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might" - (Deuteronomy 6:4-5)

MEMORY VERSE FOR THE NEXT 2 WEEKS

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Reioice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." - (Philippians 4:4-7)

"Whatever you are, be a good one."

"If you know the difference between good advice and bad advice, chances are you don't need advice."

"The flowers of kindness never fade."

"One makes one's own happiness only by taking care of the happiness of others."

"I'd rather be useful than ornamental."

"Each day comes bearing its gifts. Untie the ribbons." "You're only as pretty as the smile on your face and the thoughts that fill your heart." - more selected snippets from Mary Simons

Nov. 29-"COME BACK TO CHURCH"

The Lord Jesus purchased the church with His own blood, because He loves people and wants to be part of His family. When people stop attending church, they distance themselves from the family of God.
