A Thought From Mark...

To be able to work with good men, friends, people who love God with all their hearts and love people as well – has always been a blessing to me in ministry. It certainly is now. Dennis Menear and Paul Meredith have begun their work among us and have truly hit the ground running! I hope they and their families are in your prayers.

Dennis, as our Teaching Evangelist, is here to help us in our Christian work of fulfilling the Great Commission (Matthew 28). Of course, all ministers of the gospel in some way are to do so, but we have now this special opportunity at this special time to have a worker dedicated to promoting the spirit of outreach among us. Please cooperate with Dennis, consult Dennis, use Dennis, take advantage of Dennis (only in a good way!)*! And most of all, pray for Dennis that God may use him for His glory.

Paul Meredith joins us in a special role to reach out to young adults in our midst and those we might one day have in our midst. Paul of course is a full-time University professor, as well as a husband and father of 3 wonderful kiddos, so his time might not be as available as mine and Dennis', so I will not encourage you to "take advantage" of him! But I will indeed encourage you to pray for Paul's work, lift up his hands, cheer him on – and, if you know of a young adult or couple that needs a church family, that needs the Lord, please be aware of this wonderful resource we now have working in our midst.

Along with Luke Wolfe leading our college ministry, and Jared Shipley taking an internship with us to work with our young teens, you can see we are doing our best with the resources given us by the Father to make an impact for the Kingdom. And you can also see how good I feel, and how blessed I am, to have such co-workers in the gospel.

Remember that we are ALL ministers of Jesus, called to serve, to love, to teach, and to bless our world. We each have our roles, we each have our gifts. May we all put them to the best and wisest and most faithful use – and to God be the glory, for great things He hath done!

- Mark Mason

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

LYN: Next Door This Year

Jesus said, "And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" Jesus thought living this way was very important. As Jesus' followers, we want to live everyday doing what He thought was important.

Can you imagine what it would be like if Christians became known as the best next door neighbors?

People would want to live next to us. Maybe when they asked realtors to recommend the best neighborhood to live in, they would say "the one where the most Christians live".

This year, as a congregation, we are going to focus on loving our neighbors next door. Starting to show love to our next door neighbors is a great way to be doing what Jesus expects. To help us do that, we are going to have sermons and Bible classes that will help us learn about why we should love our neighbors, teach us how to do it, and motivate us to take action.

We want you to make a commitment this year truly to love your neighbor next door.

Starting Sunday, March 6th, the adult bible classes will use the "Love Your Neighbor" theme in promoting this effort.

Paul Meredith will facilitate a young adult class which will meet on Sunday mornings upstairs in classroom #16. Dennis Menear will present the same material in the auditorium adult class. The first lesson in both classes will be titled "Why Should I Love My Neighbor?"

The Sunday morning ladies class will also be covering this material. See Teri Copen or Janna Menear for the schedule.

You are invited to come and plug into this study and discussion time together.

Learning More About Jesus

For you married couples, do you remember when you were dating your spouse before you got hitched? Can you remember the fun of dating? There's the excitement of wanting to learn more and more who they are, what they think about things, and the process of figuring out their personality. Part of the thrill of falling in love is the eagerness of wanting to get to know them better and spend time with them.

What about our relationship with Jesus? If we can capture some of that thrill of wanting to get to know him better, it will energize us to grow in love for our Savior. Our Bible study and worship time help us learn more about Jesus Christ. And as we learn more about Jesus we become stronger in our faith and more trusting in our Lord.

We pursue deeper faith so that we "may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that... we may attain the resurrection from the "dead" (Philippians 3:10-11). We gladly embrace the call to learn more about Jesus. We are eager for opportunities to connect with him at the point of his Word. We delight in our worship together. Just like a young couple excited to develop in their relationship with one another, likewise what a thrill for believers to learn more about Jesus.

"YOUR SOUL"

The word "soul" is one we do not speak much about these days. But each of us has a God-given soul that god will one day require of us. How we live in this life will affect our souls in the life to come.

☺ To 36th Street Church of Christ, Thank you so very much for the lovely gifts and tasty goodies! Also, thank you for continuing to pray for us. Thank you for all of the cards as well. I am stable enough medically now (saw cardiologist 2/11/16) to be put back on the surgery schedule for the pain pump to be done at OSU. I do hope that I/we will be physically able to once again attend church. I really, really miss the feelings of love, peace, and joy that I used to experience when worshipping the Lord amongst you all. Thanks once again. I love you. Cathy & Ed Deem

☺ Thank you so much for the cards and well-wishes for my birthday. They were very appreciated. I love and appreciate you. Lisa Gibson
