A Thought From Mark...

"Mommas, don't let your babies grow up to be preachers..." So sang Willie or Waylon or one of those outlaws. Oh? You say that's not exactly what they sang? It was cowboys they crooned a warning to momma's about? Well, that may be, but who is to say it's more dangerous to be a cowboy than a preacher? Paul might have had something to say about that!

My mother didn't seem too concerned when I became a preacher – a little puzzled maybe, at first. But she was one of those moms that supported her children in whatever they did as long as it was good and right. I appreciate her for that.

I wonder how many mommas (or daddy's, for that matter), are encouraging or would even support their child to become a preacher or a missionary? I hope there are many, even among us here at 36th Street. There was a time when the preacher was well-respected and even a sort of town hero, like a policeman or fireman or doctor might be today. Those days are long gone. Perhaps "preacher-as-hero" was never all it was cracked up to be, but I fear "preacher-asloser" has contributed to the shortage of Gospel proclaimers in our world today.

Mary's son was a preacher. The greatest ever. Elizabeth's was too - perhaps the second-greatest ever. Paul had a mother - so did Peter. While it seems clear Jesus and John the Baptist's mothers supported them fully, who knows what happened with some of those men like the apostles who left all – sometimes including family, even momma - to follow Jesus?

All I am saying this morning is "Happy Mother's Day." Our prayers are with you as you raise your precious gifts from God, and if yours are out of the nest now, thank you for the blessings you gave them, and continue to give them.

And, if you would be so good as to let your baby grow up and be a preacher, great will be your reward in heaven!

- Mark Mason

Ladies:

Remember to pick up your gift as you exit the building today.

We appreciate you. Happy Mother's Day!

CHRIST: FIND OUT WHERE THE ROAD TAKES YOU

And he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. (Luke 24:25-27)

On the day Jesus was resurrected from the grave two disciples were traveling down a road on their way home to Emmaus. As they walked, a stranger joined them on the journey. The three began to talk together about the recent news, and the two travelers expressed their discouragement to the stranger over what had just happened in Jerusalem regarding the death of Christ. They told the stranger they'd hoped Jesus was the one to redeem Israel. The stranger interrupted them and said, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" (Luke 24:26). He then went on to interpret Old Testament Scriptures beginning with Moses and all the Prophets concerning the Christ. They were amazed at his teachings and eventually recognized the stranger as the resurrected Jesus.

I would love to have been on that road walking and talking with the Lord. Wouldn't you? It would be amazing to have Jesus carefully explain to us that the main character in God's story is the Christ. Thankfully we do have God's Word, the Bible, which powerfully depicts the work and identity of the Messiah and unfolds in written word the grand narrative of God's workings in the world.

The Bible is a book everywhere about Jesus. As Jesus explained that the centerpiece of divine revelation is the Christ, their hearts burned within them. They undoubtedly were hanging on his every word. Today, we can walk with the Lord on the road of faith and along the journey of God's Word. After all, it's only when we walk with the Lord along the road of life that we get to where we really want to go.

The disciples walking along that ancient path expected to simply arrive at their home in Emmaus. But sometimes the road leads to unexpected places. The road actually took them to a new level of faith in Jesus. What happened on the path made all the difference. You see, whenever we encounter Jesus along the way our journey is affected. We want to allow the Lord to set the course and walk with us as we travel home. Where are the roads taking

Today I will... walk with Jesus.

- Paul Merideth

ATTENTION: GRADUATES or PARENTS OF GRADUATES

If you will be graduating from high school, college, trade school, etc. this spring, please submit pictures, graduation information, and future plans to the office as soon as possible.

Tentative Date for Recognition Program: June 5, 2016

Beginning this Wednesday, May 11th, there will be a weekly Youth Gathering at the building.

The building will be open each Wednesday beginning at 4:30pm. This will be a time for our 6-12th graders to hang out, play games, and just spend time together. Our Youth Intern, Jared Shipley will be organizing/supervising activities as needed.

Dinner will be provided as well.

GIDEON

Gideon, like many of us, doubted his own abilities. He had suffered so many defeats and failures that he even put God to the test--not once but three times.

Gideon learned to trust God step by step. If the angel had told Gideon that he would defeat the 135,000 person army of the Midianites with just 300 men, Gideon would have had an impossible time believing that the message really was from God. God led him step by step. Paring down the army in such a way that Gideon knew God was in control.

The purpose for having such a small army was that God wanted Israel to know that it was He, and not Gideon and his men, who defeated the enemy (Judges 7:2).

What is it God wants you to do? Do you find it impossible to believe? The truth is, whatever God wants from you, it probably will be even more impossible than you could imagine. Yet, when you obey Him and trust Him each step of the way, it will make sense what He wants you to do. God is accomplishing His purposes on earth through His people today. It is a great thing to be obedient to God and be part of His plan.
