Weekly Bulletin

92 Years of Service

A Thought From Mark...

SUMMER SERIES

Summer Series is a great tradition that we have maintained here at 36th St for some time, and we are looking forward to the start of it next week.

A little change this year is that Summer Series will be on Sunday nights instead of Wednesday nights.

We hope and pray you will be challenged and encouraged by the speakers and their lessons each week!

The theme this year is "Becoming Overcomers" and the theme verse is from Romans 12:21: "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

There is a complete schedule of speakers included as an insert to the bulletin this week.

The Summer Quarter for Bible Classes begins this Wednesday, June 1.

Teaching Materials for the new quarter can be picked up in the Teacher's Supply Room.

A big thank you to our youth bible class teachers for the summer quarter:

Madeline Mason, Molly Mason, Michelle Craig, Donna Dixon, Kayla Dixon, Diana Gainer, Amanda Merideth, Angie Miller, and Jared Shipley.

God is My Pilot

If we are offering ourselves as living sacrifices to God, and if we are filled with and led by His Spirit, we will not be able to conceal the reason for the hope that is within us, even when unexpected opportunities present themselves.

Several years ago one of our brothers had an experience that illustrates this principle. Jim was driving a tanker with a full load of chemicals on the four-lane one night. He was passing another truck that began to drift into his lane, forcing him into the median. He got his rig back on the highway, but it fishtailed twice, each time coming dangerously close to jackknifing. Jim finally got control of his truck and brought it to a stop beside the road. A co-worker had been following Jim and witnessed the near accident. He pulled off and ran up as Jim was climbing out of his cab. He said, "I've never seen driving like that before!" Jim looked him in the eye and said, "God was driving this truck!"

Jim was not trying to create an opportunity to share his faith that night. And when his co-worker ran up to him, he was not trying to think of what he should say in order to start a religious conversation. Jim was speaking from his heart, but the simple statement he made began a conversation in which he was able to share his faith.

Our opportunities may not be quite as dramatic, but if we would be more open to sharing our feelings about God, we would find many more opportunities to share His Word with others. When God answers a prayer, do we tell the people around us? When something good happens to us, do others hear us praising God? When we are struggling with a problem, do those around us know we are trusting God to help us? If God's Word is guiding and directing our thoughts and actions, we will not be able to avoid sharing it.

"And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." Colossians 3:17

- Dennis Menear

Prayer Requests

Hospital

Charles Morris, Thomas Memorial Hospital (Charleston, WV) underwent hip surgery Friday after suffering a fall while visiting family in Charleston.

Prayer List

Gary Rea (brother of Mary Lamp - lives in Augusta, GA) his heart bypass surgery was successful. He is still in the hospital but well on the way to recovery.

Ruth Brookover spent time in the hospital last week, but is now at home. Continue to keep her in your prayers.

*O God, from my youth you have taught me,
and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.
So even to old age and gray hairs,
O God, do not forsake me,
until I proclaim your might to another generation,
your power to all those to come.
Your righteousness, O God, reaches the high heavens.
You who have done great things,
O God, who is like you?
You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again;
from the depths of the earth
you will bring me up again.
You will increase my greatness
and comfort me again.
(Psalm 71:17-21)*
