Anchor in the Storm

An anchor on a boat has a specific job. That is to be this weight on the bottom of the ocean, holding the boat in place. This prevents the boat from drifting away or off course. I feel like something for us to remember is that Jesus is our anchor in an uncertain world. Our culture and schools will often teach us that there is no absolute truth and that truth is subjective, what you make of it. There are many times when we are unsure of what is right, but there is one place that we will always be able to turn to and that is

From the Mailbox

We want to thank our church family for all the birthday cards and the 50th Anniversary cards for us. It was very much appreciated.

Joe & Gina Carrico

Thank you for all the prayers and those who sent cards! My faith in God is giving me my strength.

Thank you again,

Liz Hardman
