Whatever You Do ...

by: Doug Kashorek

"And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him" Colossians 3:17.

As we enter 2022, let us view every moment as an opportunity for the gospel to further the cause of Christ.

Certainly, we will treat our studies, classes, and worship services in our building, homes, or care facilities this way. Serving many through our Clothes Closet & Food Pantry and collecting items for the Crisis Intervention Center, School Store, and others should be seen as opportunities for the gospel as well.

The Centennial Committee (28 months left!) will hit the ground running on January 13 with a memory meeting to celebrate our past and plan for the future. Exciting changes are on the horizon for our campus and staff, so we might reach out better into the community.

The Young-At-Hearts have planned busy, fun, and productive times ahead. These events and service projects, especially after the isolation of the past two years, are opportunities to others they may know to become involved and have social interaction in Jesus' name.

As the year gets started, we'd like to serve 36th Street's membership by providing a new ministry called Good Grief! that will let those among us who have lost loved ones process grief in positive ways through mutual support and encouragement. An emphasis for those who have been widowed will occur through Widow's Walk in which those who have lost spouses can minister to one another and help couples prepare for that day.

How about CYC in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee this February 25-27? Not just for youth, how could this encourage you or others you know in their relationship with Christ?

What other events and programs will you use as opportunities for the gospel with those who are in your unique sphere of influence? This could be an amazing new year ahead!
