Follow After Me, For the Lord Has Given ...

by Doug Kashorek

... and while God raises up deliverers from among us still today (elders, deacons, teachers, parents, and ordinary Christians) who point us to our Deliverer, Jesus, it is our preachers who have the position and opportunity to have much more influence. Sadly, many churches are looking for solid men in the pulpit—and those men are harder to find.

But why? Isn't it a cushy job of two 20-minute sermons and one 45-minute class per week with plenty of time to eat out and catch an early afternoon tee time at the country club? No, it's like herding an army of cats onto the frontline of the spiritual battle for their souls as the cliff of society crumbles beneath their paws.

The leaders we see God raise up throughout history have been men (and women) of great vision to rally His people to His cause amid terrible circumstances. Ehud in the time of Judges was such a man. If you recall his name at all, you probably remember that this left-handed man thrust a dagger so far into the Moabite king's stomach that the fat closed over the hilt. Lesser known is what he did afterwards.

When he sounded a trumpet, the people came to him—"and he was their leader." We need preachers who sound calls to action, yes, but the people must rally to them, willing to be led, not by those who promote themselves but point to God. Ehud was such a leader as he said, "Follow after me, for the Lord has given your enemies the Moabites into your hand."

We are in a spiritual battle for our souls and the souls of the lost world around us. The cliff of society is crumbling beneath us at an ever-increasing rate. The battle does belong to the Lord; His Son has already won the war. It is my job as your preacher to sound the trumpet and point the way to our Savior. But, it is yours to rally to the call.

Time to sharpen your sword, for the Lord has given your enemies into your hand.
