It Helps to Prepare

by Dean Miller

William Bridges wrote a book about embracing life's most difficult moments. It's titled The Way of Transition. As an expert on the topic of transition, as a world-renowned lecturer on the subject, as a leader in helping businesses navigate transitions—life forced him to deal with a very personal transition. His wife, Mondie, died at the age of 57 (after 37 years of being together). He wrote in this book:

Loss was such a complex experience! Layer after layer of meaning. No wonder that, in dream and memory, mourning sent you back over the ground again and again. No wonder mourning took so long to complete and move beyond. No wonder that people who make a change without mourning the loss of the past usually find it confronting them later on, down the road. No wonder that it takes more than a ceremony to lay someone to rest (p. 64).

We live in a grief-illiterate society. Our contemporary culture does not feel comfortable with the subject of loss and its impact. By in large, we don't talk about it. It is threatening to our comfort zone. So, when we suffer loss, we are not equipped to deal with its impact effectively. We are also not equipped to help others. Loss is one of life's harshest blows. It can make us feel like we are going crazy. But we're not; we are grieving.

The best preparation for the storm of loss in life is hearing and doing the will of the Lord (Matthew 7:24-27). The storm will still cause damage, but it will not destroy your life. God's grace is always sufficient (2 Corinthians 12:7-10). When overwhelmed, we need to passionately seek the Lord, our higher ground (Psalm 61:2). An additional form of effective preparation is grief education. Read a good book about it. Talk with others who know about it by experience. Watch videos that discuss it. You will be glad you did.

A preacher for four decades, author and speaker, Dean Miller, lost his beloved wife in 2013 and now conducts Widowhood Workshops around the country, preparing many for the trials of life with loss.

THANK YOU NOTES!!

To my 36th street family and friends— I want to thank you for your thoughts, cards and prayers while I was recuperating from my leg issue. Lymphedema is a rough issue to deal with and still learning about it.

Love you —Kim Feltner
(George and Sue Teel's daughter)

To all at the 36th Street Church of Christ— I wanted to thank you on behalf of Patsy Garrett (Hattie Garrett's daughter) for all the beautiful messages, prayers, and letters. Unfortunately, my wonderful mother passed on February 28, 2022 in Hospice from her cancer. She always spoke fondly of the church and for all the comfort and guidance you afforded her mother, Hattie. Please share with the congregation and all who knew Patsy of her passing and that she truly loved you all.

Thank you and much love,
Susan Fafrak
(Patsy Garrett's daughter/Hattie Garrett's grand-daughter)

Dear Church family —

Thanksgiving Extravaganza

Once again we are nearing the time of year in which we make an extra effort to show our appreciation to the Lord for His tremendous blessings and provision in our lives. Perhaps there’s a time in your life you can think back to when things were a bit of a challenge. You wondered where the money to pay bills, get gas, or for the next meal was going to come from. Please help us to provide meals for some families this Thanksgiving, and be a part of our community outreach. We will need members to sign up to prepare a portion of the meal and then members to help with delivery. Food will need to be dropped off Nov 18 from 5-7PM or Nov 19 by 8AM, right before delivery starts.

Also, if you know of any families in need, please fill out a form from the table in the foyer and place it in the box. There are also sign up sheets to choose what part of the meal you want to make. (The food that is prepared will need to be enough to fit in a larger aluminum buffet tray.) If you would like to just give a monetary donation towards the meal, or any questions, please contact Della Poling (304-834-7519).

Hey KIDS , Parents, & Grandparents!! There are books for you to take from the “Kids’ Library” in the foyer! Help yourself! And ... there is a new packet for school-age or younger children on the first Sunday of every month. God bless and be safe!
