What's Happening at 36th Street?

by Doug Kashorek

Hopefully, you'll notice a difference with a new projector for the big screen in the auditorium today—and just in time as Ron Laughery will speak while Angie and I use a great wedding present this weekend, which is a stay in Amish country.

We'll see Ron later in the summer as he'll join many preachers from the past (and a few new names) in our What's the Good News? summer series that will run on Wednesday evenings from June through August.

In April, there will be a teachers' meeting after morning service with a light lunch on the 16th to plan the Life of Christ curriculum for the kids' classes and other events. Also, on the 30th, Jim Black will speak about how 36 th Street's generosity has affected the work of Eastern European Missions (EEM) in the midst of the war in Ukraine. Being a 5th Sunday, there will be a potluck after morning service and then we'll have a singing service centered around a theme that evening.

When May arrives, we'll start celebrating our 100 th year as the Centennial Committee will plan a second store and take pre-orders for a coffee table book of 36 th Street's story this fall. There are projects and ways to get involved leading up to the festivities throughout May 2024, which will include a banquet at Grand Pointe on the day of our 100 th birthday.

On the first Saturday of May, Widows Walk would like to take its first trip. Right now the cost and itineraries for several ideas are being compared. Space will be limited, though, as we will use the church's 14-passenger (+driver) van, so if you're interested in getting away for a day, let me know right away ... about that and servicing on the Grief Response Team (GReAT) that I've mentioned in a recent sermon as we're to "weep with those who weep" Romans 12:15.

As warmer weather arrives, continue to donate to our closet & pantry that helps so many. We'll also, no doubt, plan a cookout or two soon. After all, what's great fellowship without great food!
