An Eager Preacher's Journey Begins

By: Aidan Klingler

You're probably wondering who I am and why I'm writing this. Well, my name is Aidan Klingler and I'm the new Intern here at the 36th Street Church of Christ. I know, I know, I look like I just graduated high school last week. And honestly, you wouldn't be too far off. I'm just about to graduate high school! I am a high school senior and this coming May I will be graduating! After I do so, I will be off to WVSOP (West Virginia School of preaching) to further my education and grow as a preacher. With a passion for ministry and a calling to serve this congregation, I hope to be a light guide and friend!

I'm not the new guy in town, as I have lived in the Mid-Ohio valley all my life. My family has been a part of the Lord's Church for generations, with a lot of the men in my family being Elders in the Church. (John Speece, Byron Daggett and Elmer Barnes) I still figured an introduction was in order. I wanted to give you a glimpse into my background. My hope is that through getting to know me a little better, you will feel comfortable approaching me with questions, concerns, or even just to chat over a cup of coffee. I am eager to dive into ministry with you all and can't wait to see what God has in store for our church family!

I would also like to remind the youth in our congregation that we have the "Is God up your Alley" bowling event tomorrow. Please come to this free event as we hope to have lots of fun, fellowship and food!

Centennial Banquet Tickets

Purchase tickets for $10 until April 11th. (Over half of the tickets were sold last Sunday.) Please fill out a form and turn your money into one of the Elders, Doug or Dan Mincks. Tickets will be passed out to members beginning May 1st. All others will pick up their tickets at the banquet door.

News and Centennial

- ◆ The revision of the book is done! This means that everything is on the 100 pages that should be, and now it's down to editing before turning it over to the publisher in March. This means that soon that pages or sections may be given to representatives of families to help us with details and accuracy. Thank you for helping us with your book!
- ◆ Purchase your banquet tickets for $10 for the May 25th dinner. There will only be 150 tickets sold.
- ◆ Please note that we will do clothing orders again in the spring.
- ◆ We only plan to print 200 copies of our 100-page centennial book. You may pre-order now & receive a certificate of sale. However, sales will remain open until the celebration in May.

Would you like to send a card?

You may place cards in the basket by the Deacon's desk & we will mail them out.

YOUTH—Is God up your Alley?

Join us tomorrow (NO SCHOOL, Mon 2/19) for a fun game of bowling and then lunch provided. It will begin at 10:30AM at Emerson Lanes and all expenses are paid. There is a sign-up sheet on the desk so that we know how many to plan for. If anyone needs a ride, please contact Aidan Klingler (304-494-3238) or one of the Elders

Love and Care Assisted Living in Lubeck has openings for private rooms right now. If you know of anyone that has been considering a personal care home, please pass this information along to them. We have set out pamphlets with a letter about the facilities in the foyer.

Love & Care can also be called at 304-863-8950 to set up a tour.

The Service Station

Soups—chicken noodle, tomato and vegetable beef

Kids' Corner

According to Acts 13:2, who was set apart by the Spirit for a missionary journey? (two letters)

- A. Antioch
- B. Barnabas
- C. Simeon
- D. Saul

Tell the correct answer to Matt or Rise Snyder (and wish them a happy anniversary yesterday!) for a prize.

Hey moms, dads, grandparents and KIDS! There is a new activity packet for school-age or younger children in the foyer on the first Sunday of every month.
