

A Sunday Well Spent.

February/March 2016.

The Cheapest Means Of Travel To And From The Church Building.

The final stretch To Kagaene Church Building.

- ◆ I meet a lady on her way from the river to fetch water...on the right, men are trying to dry their corn harvest.

A Few Yards To The Church Building.

Cattle and sheep resting outside their owner's house, and on the right are ladies doing laundry.

Finally At Kagaene The Church Building.

- ◆ Seems like someone was here before me...they just opened the door, windows, and left.

As We Wait For Others To Arrive,

- ◆ ...we start watching Jesus' Life story in our native language (Kimeru), from a tablet I bought in Morgantown, WV.

Preaching The Word.

After The Sunday Service.

◆ Members sometimes bring fruits and sugar cane as offering.

More Pics After The Service.

◆ The lady on the right is holding a live chicken that someone had brought as their offering.

The Congregation Minister And I.

- ◆ The Minister, Zakayo Gitonga has served the Lord's Church as a Preacher for more than 20 years in Ethiopia and Kenya.
- ◆ Zakayo has been of great help to my Ministry.

Buying Some Grocery On A Sunday Afternoon.

- ◆ Everything you need for grocery is found neatly displayed by the roadside.

Buying Some Yams.

- ◆ Items for sale have no fixed price or price tags. The amount of money you pay depends on your bargaining skills.

Negotiating The Price Of Some Arrow roots.

Asking For The Price Of A Bunch Of Bananas.

Buying A Piece Of 'Roasted Corn'.

- ◆ Maize (corn) in a cob is 'roasted' by placing it above some burning charcoal. One can buy a small piece or the whole cob.

Buying Some Tomatoes.

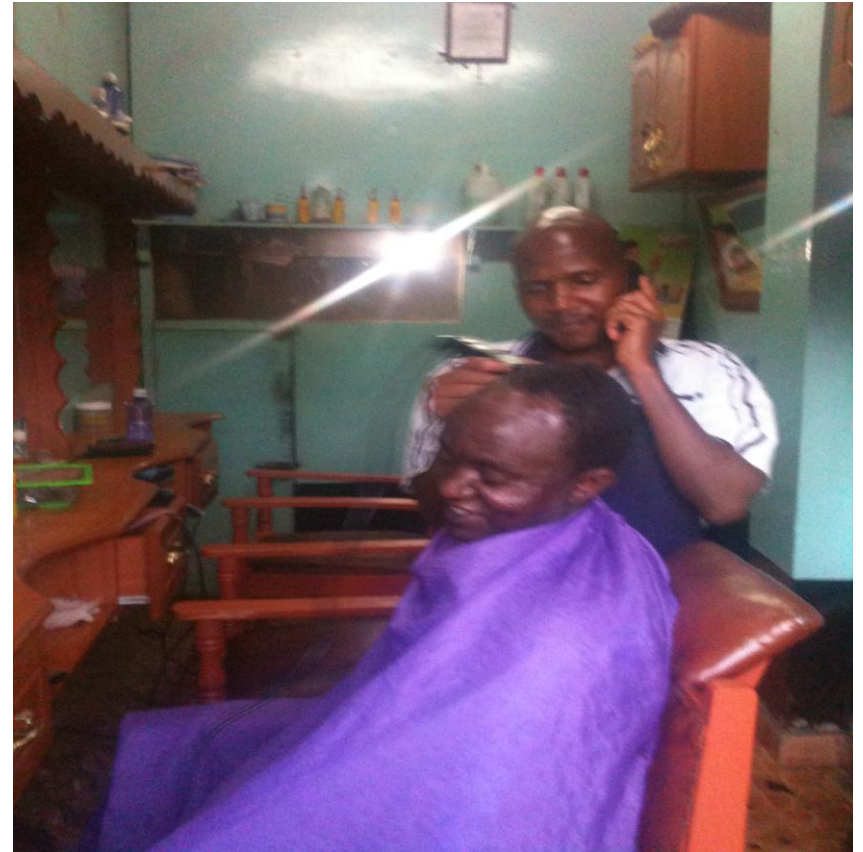

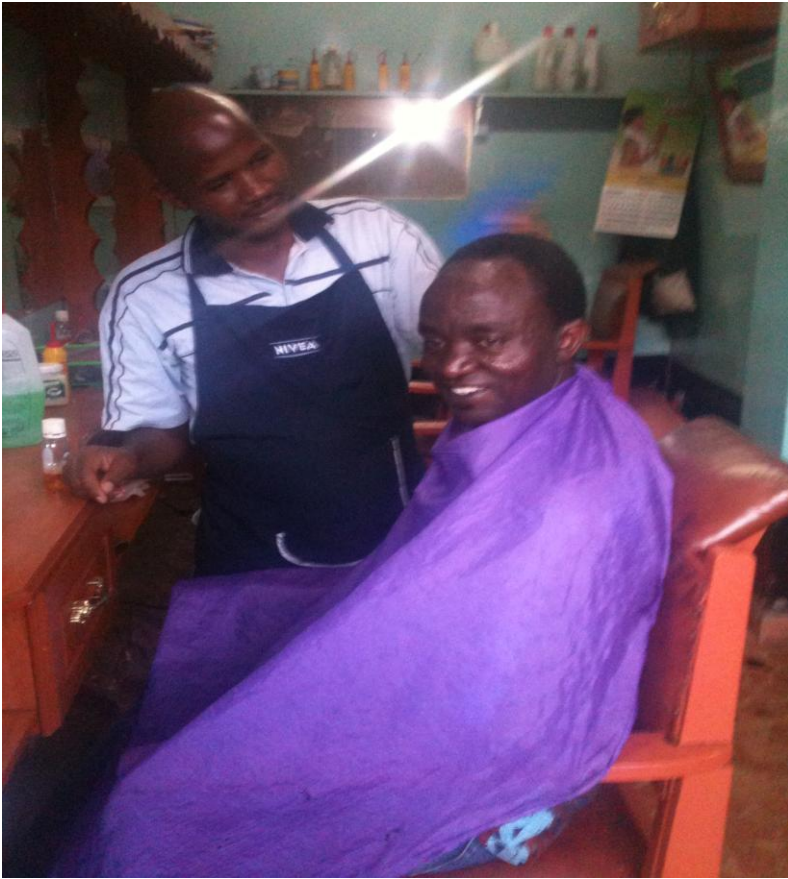

Buying A Pair Of Scissors.

Finally Purchasing A Piece Of Meat To Take Home.

Getting A Hair Cut.

Chilling With Friends Before Going Home.

Prayer Requests.

- ① Help us pray for peace to return to the people of Gambella, Ethiopia. Gambella is the region I served The Lord's Church last year. The Nuer and the Anyuak tribes are fighting each other.
- ② Help us also pray for continued growth of The Lord's Church in Meru.

Be blessed and...
